Moving homeHow to get organised before the big day

0	6	4	2
Weeks out  No time for	Weeks out Get your act together	Weeks out It's crunch time	Weeks out The final stretch
Print out this checklist and keep it handy.  Begin an inventory of all the items you'll be taking with you to the new home.  Start stocking up on boxes, bubble wrap, tape, markers and similar accessories.  If you're already using utilities, contact the supplier to inform them of your move.  Inform your bank, your employer's HR department and any other important contacts.	If you're an existing customer and you're moving your GO services with you, now is a good time to let us know.  Go through your things and decide what's in, what's out. This will save you time and backache by cutting down the number of boxes you'll be moving into your new home.  Start packing furniture, large items and lesserused items and nonessentials. Note what's inside each box.	Make a plan for packing the remainder of your items so you aren't packing at the last minute.  Shop around for moving companies. Review estimates and pick the one that fits your budget and needs most.  If you have private home insurance, check with your provider whether this can be transferred to the new property.  With four weeks left till the big move, consider whether you'd like to make changes to your home internet plan, like	Take a breather and review everything you've done so far. Have you overlooked anything? Is all paperwork in order? Are your utilities ready to go?  If your current home's fridge and pantry are stocked to the brim, use up all your perishable items before the move. Any other staple you can bring along with you on moving day.  You should be done with all your packing by now, save for items that you absolutely cannot pack away yet.
1		upgrading it with addons.	Keep a few extra empty
Moving Day The big day is finally here  Prepare a travel bag with	The day after Time for unpacking and settling down  Locate your most essentials and start the unpacking process.	Remember to take some time to relax and recharge. Moving is an exciting period, but can also leave you drained.	boxes handy for last- minute items.
the absolute essentials you might need during the first night in your new home. Think of items like a change of clothes, toiletries, prepackag- es snacks and drinks, charging wires and your	While there are no hard and fast rules as to which rooms you should unpack first, consider starting off with those that won't take up too much time, like bedrooms and bathrooms.	NOT	ES
Plug 'n' GO.  Before leaving your old property for good, do a final sweep of the house to make sure you haven't left apprint by his indicates the same than	Unpacking boxes can be just as daunting as packing them. Take it slow and easy and don't let your urgency to settle everything take the better anything behind.  Upon arrival at your new home and before the movers leave, check the num-	of you.
ber of boxes delivered.
ber of boxes delivered.  This is a hectic day. Don't forget to take frequent breaks, hydrate and nibble on some healthy snacks.
This is a hectic day. Don't forget to take frequent breaks, hydrate and nibble
This is a hectic day. Don't forget to take frequent breaks, hydrate and nibble
This is a hectic day. Don't forget to take frequent breaks, hydrate and nibble			